Description of Services

Short Cressman & Burgess PLLC is a law firm of 18 attorneys and 6 paralegals, plus support staff. Our practice groups are designed to provide skilled and experienced counsel in major areas of the law: real estate; environmental and natural resources; water law; land use; municipal; insurance; construction; Indian law; and civil litigation.

History/Years in Business

Founded in 1915, Short Cressman & Burgess represents private and public clients. Our private business clients vary in size from startups to very large corporations and our public clients include public ports, water districts, cities, counties and Indian tribes.

Geographic Area Served

Headquartered in Seattle, the SCB's practice is concentrated in the Pacific Northwest. We also provide services to businesses on the West Coast and throughout the nation.
