

- Accredited post-secondary training for marine technicians and boatbuilders
- Founded in 1981; Over 1,800 graduates; 8-acre custom-built campus in Port Hadlock
- A 2024 Center of Excellence for Domestic Maritime Workforce Training and Education (CoE) designee by the U.S. Department of Transportation Maritime Administration

Boatbuilding

- 12-months
- AOS Degree
- Hands-on
- Range of techniques, including wood composite
- Jobs:
 - Shipyards
 - Construction
 - Woodworking trades

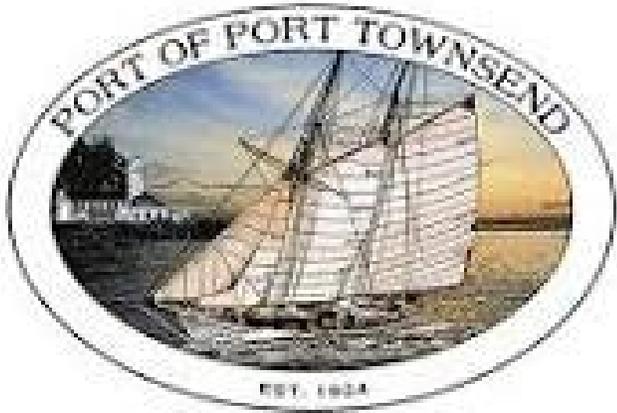

Marine Systems

- 9-month diploma
- Marine electrical, outboards, inboards, plumbing, steering & controls, propulsion, HVAC, corrosion
- Jobs:
 - Shipyards
 - Manufacturers
 - Tiny Homes
 - Van conversions & emergency vehicles

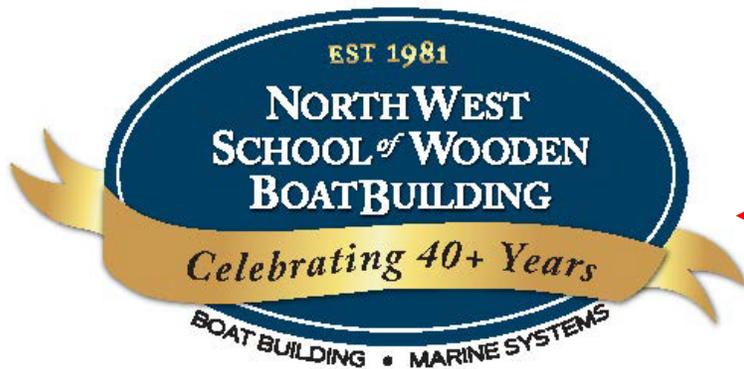

National Resource

- Locally grown
- 40-60 students each year
- Students attend from around the country (also international)
- Only pre-requisite is high school grad/GED

Northwest Maritime

PTMTA
Port Townsend Marine Trades Association
giving voice to workers and industry

Economic Ecosystem

- 1 in 5 jobs in the marine trades in Jefferson County
- Port infrastructure supports the whole
- Synergy creates a greater whole

Synergy from collaboration with Port

- NWSWB Designed and built a self-contained electric pumpout module to sit inside the Port's existing workboat that is removeable.

Building Career Pathways

For Azariah, Elliot, and Willy, the path to living wage work began straight out of high school.